

PharmDamentals July 30, 2021

An exciting program specifically designed for high school students interested in STEM or healthcare careers. During the program, students will learn more about the pharmacy profession, interact with pharmacists in a wide range of career paths, and engage with current MUSC College of Pharmacy students. There is no cost to participate but registration is required. Registration deadline: Friday, July 23.

<https://bit.ly/3feFUyA>

Changing What's Possible